

Northumberland county

Access to the Archives

Public access is free of charge and available as follows:

Year-round

Tuesday-Wednesday 1:00-4:30pm

June-August

Monday-Thursday 1:00-4:30pm

Appointments recommended

In partnership with

Like us on Facebook!

 @NorthumberlandCountyArchives

NorthumberlandCounty.ca

Location

200 Ontario Street
Cobourg, Ontario K9A 5P4

Mailing Address

555 Courthouse Road
Cobourg, Ontario K9A 5J6

archives@northumberlandcounty.ca

(905) 372-0677

This document is available in an alternative format, upon request.

ARCHIVES

Ensuring a future for our past

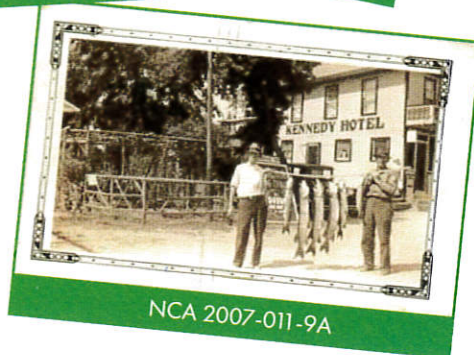

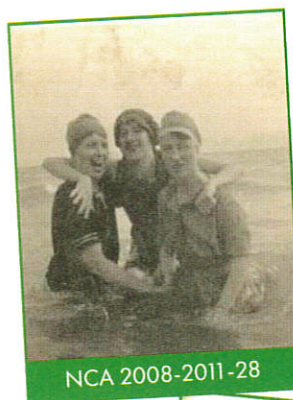

NCA 2008-2014-2

Official archival repository for the Town of Cobourg, Township of Cramahe, Township of Alnwick/Haldimand, the Municipality of Brighton, and the Marie Dressler Foundation.

Services Available

- tours, educational programs & exhibits
- free access to the collection
- volunteer opportunities
- genealogy & property research
- research assistance
- professional advice on care of historic documents and artifacts

The Collection

The Northumberland County Archives holds primary records and artifacts related to the history of the Northumberland County region.

Materials in the Collection include but are not limited to:

- by-laws & municipal council minutes
- tax assessment & collectors rolls
- deeds & property abstracts
- birth, marriage & death registrations
- photographs & postcards
- local newspapers dating from 1849
- school & service club records
- maps, atlases & plans
- family & church records
- Tweedsmuir Women's Institute records